THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.NAGARJUNA REDDY

WPMP.No.9073 of 2006
AND
WRIT PETITION No.9065 of 2005

ORDER:-

WPMP.No.9073 of 2006 is filed to record the terms of compromise and dispose of the writ petition in accordance with the said compromise.

A perusal of the record shows that on 20.03.2006 the petitioner, respondent No.4 and their counsel executed a compromise memo, which reads as under:

> "It is submitted that the parties have agreed to the share of the compensation amount. The parties shall take steps for sending the reference to the court accordingly for enhancement of compensation amount. As the parties are compromised with the compromise in the above petition, the parties are amicably settled the matter out of the Court.
> Hence, it is prayed that this Hon'ble High Court may be pleased to record the terms of compromise and dispose of the writ petition accordingly and pleased to pass such other order or orders as deem fit and proper."

At the hearing, there is no representation for the learned counsel for the petitioner, but on an earlier occasion Sri C. Ramesh Sagar was present and requested this Court to dispose of the writ petition in terms of the compromise memo. As counsel for respondent No.4 was not present on that occasion, the case is posted for today. Today, Sri B. Vijaya Bhaskar representing Sri K. Muralidhar Reddy, learned counsel for respondent No.4 submitted that he has no objection for disposal of the writ petition in terms of the compromise memo.

In view of the same, the writ petition is disposed of in terms of the said compromise memo with the direction that the said memo shall form part of this order. WPMP.No.9073 of 2006 is ordered accordingly.

As a sequel to disposal of the writ petition in the manner indicated above, WPMP.No.11919 of 2005 filed by the petitioner for interim relief is disposed of as infructuous.
